I will try to give the student plenty of exercises with plenty of opportunity to ask questions in Arabic and converse. Asking questions, working out live problems in the Arabic grammar and making up sentences is very important for a student of the Arabic language and I try to give the student plenty of opportunity to do so. I try use many different ways in my teaching according to the age and the level of the students. I use all types of activities such as games, flash cards, play role and etc.

I'm a native Arabic person living in the UK. Therefore my Middle Eastern background provides a wide variety of cultural background information.
