Details:

To my future student,

I envision assisting you with speaking excellent English. I will make sure the English is specific to your needs in Education or Business, whether it is in polishing your reading/writing or conversational skills or preparing you for a test.

I have taught in the Emirates for a year and a half and have privately tutored students in the royal family, children, and business professionals. I am currently working on a government contract in a primary school teaching local teachers English and good teaching practice. My contract ends in August.

I am a committed teacher and will make sure that your goal of learning the English language is accomplished.

I have a B.A. in Communication. I have a TESOL license. I am also finishing a M.A. in International Peace and Conflict Resolution with a focus on the Middle East. I am familiar with Islam, I am Muslim. I also can intermediately speak, read, write and type Arabic.

I am flexible in who I teach and can teach more than one person, if for example you have a large family and have several people who need to polish their skills. I have taught in Oman, UAE, Turkey and the United States.

I am interested in a two year contract, with accommodation, visa, and plane tickets to the United States. The base salary being $4000 US dollars a month.

If you are interested please feel free to email me and we can negotiate further.

Warm Regards,
