detalhes:

I worked as German Teacher in San Francisco (California) as well as in Germany.
I teach introduction, intermediate and advance German by assesing and creating individual learning curriculums based on students interests and
I am comfortable teaching students of all ages. I am responsible, patient and kind and do my best to find the ways in which each individual student learns best. I'm happy to include information about German culture, the people, and the country anything you may be interested in! I have some quality books, games and software which I use in my lesson.
