Detalles:

I have worked in both private and state run colleges in England. I am a native English speaker. I have also worked as a private tutor for many years and I have extensive experience of preparing students for exams on a one to one basis. I can teach in the Brighton area or on Skype. I have a car and can visit within the Brighton area. I now have many students using Skype and this is a very successful method of teaching and learning. I am a very patient tutor and make the course to suit your needs.
