details:

I am a qualified UK secondary English teacher who obtained training at the best educational training establishment in the country. I have several years of full-time teaching experience and am familiar with the requirements of all public UK examinations. I am also able to teach French. I am a very patient, kind and efficient tutor and can always see the true potential of my students. I have an excellent track record in terms of my students' exam results. I can prepare students for public exams or provide KS3 tutoring for the younger years
