Details:

I am an experienced tutor, really self-motivated and highly qualified. I have been and I am working as a language teacher and pedagogic coordinator here in London with bilingual students (Anglo-italian, from 5 to 14 years old) and it is a great experience. I really enjoy preparing lessons aimed at young people, and I can be very imaginative with them. Nevertheless, I rather find more challenging teaching to adults, because they need a completely tailor-made approach and a strong grammar reinforcement. As a language expert I also supported adults in learning English language when I was in Italy. As foreign adults learning Italian, Italians also needed support and a lot of communicative effort from the teacher, but I managed to get them very satisfied about their knowledge and competence at the end of the courses. I own excellent communicative manners, and I usually tend to give great attention to spoken and written skills. I have a solid background of Linguistics and glottodidactics. I am well aware of the Eu framework of languages and I tailor language teaching methods to different needs and levels. I am also able to use my own initiative and create my own teaching material. And I am a very patient tutor indeed!
