Subject:

Russian, Ukrainian languages, piano, theory of music

qualification:

Teacher and music expert

level:

Master\'s digree

details:

Being qualified teacher (master\'s degree) and journalist,I am passionate about teaching languages and music. Ideally I would like to teach Russian, Ukrainian, piano and theory of music in bilingual (multilingual) families.
Revealing and developing children\'s talents and skills at early age is very important to achieve distinguished results. Having my longterm experience of working and communicating with different people (professionals and students), I am convinced that lessons must not be boring, they have to be exciting. With children I like reasonably combined teaching and playing. With young students I apply more strict discipline.
But in both groups I always encourage creative thinking, researching skills and initiative.
