Details:

I am an experienced mathematics tutor and I am able to help Year 6-Year 12 students who are studying Mathematics (including Mathematical method and Specialist Math) to achieve awesome marks.

I got the best marks in my maths subjects during my secondary school and achieved High Distinction in Australian Mathematics Competition in 2005. At the moment, I am studying Biomedical engineering at the University of Melbourne, which is maths and sciences based course. I can also provide some relevant career advice, exam preparation techniques, goal setting and how to become successful.
