Nachhilfelehrer/in ID: 28522

Ort: AB11 Aberdeen, Great Britain

Online-Option:

Ich bevorzuge Unterricht vor Ort, aber schließe Onlineunterricht nicht aus.

Fächer:

Biology, Chemistry, Maths

Qualifikation:

Currently studying for a PhD in Ecology and genetics
Masters in Research in Ecology and Environmental management (Distinction, University of York).
BSc Biology (Hons), with Year in Industry (First, University of York).

Niveau:

Degree (Biology), G.C.S.E-A.Level in Maths and Chemistry

Details:

I really enjoy guiding others in learning, especially in subjects I love such as Biology. I have some experience in demsonstrating in practical classes at the University, and having been in education for a while, feel I can also identify very well with students. I hope this means I am approachable as well as patient! I have also been awarded a couple of awards recently for both poster and oral presentations, demonstrating an ability to take complicated subjects and them communicating effectively to new audiences. I also have an up to date disclosure form through previous university work
