French

qualification:

I tutored in London for one year with different students. It was a fantastic experience.
Regarding my background, i have a Bachelor in financial management and a Master in Management. Most of my classes at school were in English and I completed the Test of English for International Communication with 98% success.
I worked in London for one year and share my life with Australian housemates during the last two years

level:

From starter to advanced

details:

I am a 24 years old French girl. I have just finished business studies in Paris and I would love to teach you my native language from starter level to advanced. I can help for homework, conversation, detailed grammar, preparation for exams
I can adapt the classes to your needs. I like to make sure my students will progress while having fun and talking about subjects that interest them.

I use various supports as books, internet, audio, DVDs, even exceptional visits or gastronomy classes for special occasions if wanted!

I really enjoy teaching to the students and I am available during the week and weekends. I am very patient and positive. Très bien
