detalhes:

I am a very professional individual with a passion for teaching. I have taught for 8 years now in the UK and Dubai. I currently work in an International school and teach students of over 48 nationalities. My philosophy to teaching is centered around involving the student in their own studies so that they gain greater depth of understanding and become more independent learners.

I communicate well with adults and children on all levels and always aim to achieve the best from the people work with. I am patient and courteous person, with excellent organisation and time management skills.
