Details:

My name is Ed. I have just moved to Vienna, Austria from Madrid, Spain where I taught business and First Certificate English to telecommunications professionals. I have been teaching for 12 years to all age groups and learning levels in the United States and across Europe. I am very patient and thorough when I teach; I will take time to answer all of your questions and offer a dynamic and varied approach to learning. I use video, music, books and other resources to provide students normal everyday English so one learns naturally rather than just from a textbook. I will elevate your fluency in grammar, conversation and speaking, vocabulary, writing, listening, reading and test preparation. Although my main expertise is English, I\'d be happy to tutor you in the other subjects listed. My tutor fee starts at 20/hr, however, I do offer discounts with groups of 2 or more. I look forward to working with you soon!
