Details:

I’m Krista Marie L. T , I'm currently taking my Masteral in University of Southeastern Philippines taking up Masters in Public Administration major in Organizational Studies. I’m connected to one of the largest BPO industry in Davao City as a Human Resource Associate. I have good and stable work now but I want to learn more and maximize my time that’s why looking for an online job gave me a good idea

I'm looking for a part time job preferably online tutorial job either work on weekends or weekdays after my shift .My shift in the company which I’m connected with is from 9-6 or up until 7 just to finish some task. Unlike call center agents they worked on graveyard shift but as part of back office in HR Dept.we do have day shift. My tasks as a Human Resource Associate are that, I do Interviews to applicants, processing, sourcing as well as in placement

Further, my reason for looking an online tutorial job is to maximize my time and as well my resources. In which, I can be able to work online because I have laptop and unlimited net access through my postpaid broadband. In a hand, I'm fluent in speaking English because I do interviews for applicants and I'm as well a resource speaker in different seminars and forums in Colleges and Universities on “How to Ace you’re self in a Job interview”. On my end, compensation is not a big thing as long as the pay is reasonable I’m very much willing with it .Because, my main goal here is I want to learn and learn as well to share my understandings, skills and expertise to my clients. Wherein, this job application really made me very interested and made me very excited for a nut shell of learning and acquisition of knowledge that is on it. Rests assure Sir and Ma'am that I, as an HR practitioner will render good quality services and costumer satisfaction to all my clients.
