SERVICES
•Private individual Spanish tutoring (all levels)
•Customized lessons focusing on your particular needsrn• Preparation for Official Spanish Language exam DELE (Dimploma de Español como Lengua Extranjera) is organized three times a year by the Spanish Embassy; in May, November.
The courses are designed to provide students with a knowledge of Spanish language and to develop the four language skills of speaking, writing, reading and listening. The courses are also focused on the appreciation of Spanish culture and tradition which is inseparably connected with the spoken language. The content of the courses are delivered through classroom activities, language games, and group exercises. The work includes regular practice – in class, in drill sessions, and in the language laboratory – in understanding and using the spoken language. Reading materials serve for vocabulary building, analytical exercises, and discussion.
