Details:

Teaching is my acute passion rather than profession. It is connected with the core of my heart and mind. Sometimes, I think that my existence on this earth is mainly for teaching rather planting the students rather petals in different colours with different essence. Truly speaking I am so as I have been teaching Accounting, General Math, and English Language to the students of O/A level, BBA/MBA, CAT/ACCA since 1994 in Kolkata and then in Edexcamb coaching centre, Dhaka. Moreover, I have been as a Chief Accountant in Gaco that enhanced my teaching expertise with the implementation of practical concepts. Insha-Allah I can give assurance for far more better results than your expectation from your lovely children. My proven effective approach of teaching molds the students in their wished dices. If you trust me, I will prove whether I am trustworthy.
